RUSS PETERSON, ESQ.
Kansas City, Missouri

Russ Peterson is a seasoned trial attorney with extensive experience representing both plaintiffs and defendants in civil litigation. He left his litigation practice in 2021 to focus on mediation and arbitration full time. He draws on this courtroom experience during the mediation process, employing a combination of the facilitative and evaluative mediator approaches.

During his career as a trial counsel for both plaintiffs and defendants, Mr. Peterson tried 98 cases to jury verdict, as well as several bench trials. He participated in approximately 1,800 mediations as an attorney, and completed over 4,000 depositions. He has served as a CLE instructor in programs regarding Jury Trials, Voir Dire and use of computer evaluations by Insurers, among many topics.

Mr. Peterson been a member of the Missouri and Kansas Bars his entire legal career, as well as numerous local Bar Associations.

Mr. Peterson concentrates his mediation practice on the resolution of:

- Personal Injury Disputes
- Property Damage Disputes
- Products Liability Disputes
- Trucking Accidents
